Army Declass Instructions on File

Dear Mr. Amory:

I am forwarding to you for review a copy of the lecture which you presented to the Army War College on 25 August 1955. It has been transcribed from our recording equipment but, as you will note, has not been completely edited. If you desire to make any corrections, please do so and return the draft copy to us. Upon receipt of the final draft, six copies will be made and placed in our library for future reference.

As you no doubt know, the contents of your lecture will not be disseminated outside the Army War College without your permission, however, it is possible that your remarks will be used as source material for student papers.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,
